400. A very rare and unusual Medical Profession medal. One in bronze and another in silver. 38 Mm. JENNER medals. Discoveror of Vaccine. May 14, 1896. Bust of Jenner to left. VACCINATION MAY 14th/1796-1896/JENNER; Reverse In center, the Medical Profession emblem, a coiled snake around a pole. MEDICAL - SOCIETY - OF - THE - COUNTY - OF - KINGS. In proof condition. Along with the medals goes a testimonial letter, dated June 25, 1896. wherein Fredrick Koch the medalist manufacturer is assuring Mr. David Prosky a famous New York Numismatist that he is at Mr. Prosky's request, destroying the excess of over 3 pieces of the silver and over 250 pieces of the bronze medals. Evidently as the letter reads, Mr. Prosky is allowing Mr. Koch to retain only one each for his show case. (Without a doubt, these medals must be scarce, especially the silver, since only three pieces were struck.) On the reverse of the letter is a photo-engraving of a group of distressed people viewing the doctor administering the vaccine into a child's arm. This is the first and possibly the last time we will have the opportunity to offer you these two very unusual items. As to the valuation, we will leave this up to the bidders. ....

401. An unusual 25c Script on the Mechanics and Traders Bank of New Orleans. April 3rd, 1862. As indicated by this note, Mr. J. B. Schiller, President of this bank, who also owned and operated Sazerac House, a Hotel at 16 Royal St., and what makes this interesting is that the writer acquired this in Canada from an outstanding collector, who claims it is from a descendent of Mr. Schiller who resides there. Also included in this lot is an 1860 copper nickel cent counterstamped with J. B. Schiller on obverse and reverse counterstamped with an X. This adds to the interest of this lot especially to the token collector since X on this cent must indicate that due to the shortage of decimal coinage this cent passed as 10 cents. Again no indication of value is placed here. To the token collector, this would be exceedingly rare. — —

448. (1856) Flying eagle cent. Adams-Woodin 212. Struck in pure copper. This is the undated and without inscription variety. Rarity 12 of which only 6-8 pieces were struck. Brilliant red proof. The commoner variety in copper nickel is selling up to $450.00 and listed as R.1, for which Adam-Woodin states 501 struck. As to recent reports there are approximately 1000 pieces of this type struck. Naturally this one being rarity 12 should bring as to scarcity three or four times as much but due to not being collected as extensively, will probably only bring about the same as the regular one. Brilliant Proof ..... — —

449. (1856) Flying eagle cent. Not in Adam-Woodin. Similar type to AW No. 215 which is the large flying eagle/Tobacco wreath and struck in nickel. This definitely is the same type but struck in copper-nickel. Another peculiarity is that the weakness on the eagle's breast would normally be considered wear, but on further examination the die breaks alone with being flat struck on the eagle's tail, top of wreath flat struck, it is uncirculated. Could be listed as AW No. 215-A, and since it is the first we have ever seen or handled we consider this as rare as any other 1856 pattern if not rarer ..... — —

CONSIGNMENT C.

Bidders please note. Check your bids very carefully on the following lots. You are bidding on lots. These have been examined only casually by us, using our conservative classification, not the consignors. There are no holed or badly mutilated coins but we could be off on a mint mark or the count by one piece. The reason for this demand is that it is too costly to have a bidder make bids and decide he would rather not have the lot after he has bought same. You are bidding with the understanding that your bids are final on the following consigned lot. No returns. This notice is more or less intended for the new bidders. Our regular bidders are fully aware of our conservative grading and have been well pleased with lots such as the following. Go ahead and bid conservatively. We like selling bargains as well as receiving same.

940A This lot would not as a rule be normal practice to the cataloguer but where could you attract more attention to this interesting error or Freak. $5.00 1953 Silver Certificate. So called Comet Variety. An unusual fold in the paper in printing caused an ¼th inch wide white gutter mark. Starting at its wide point at lower left hand corner, cutting the top of the large numeral 5, continuing on through the serial numbers distorting and bisecting them, then through Lincoln's beard giving him an unusual longer facial expression than he normally has, then ending in a sharp point below the larger numeral 5 at the upper right hand corner. Normally the paper creases do not interest the cataloguer but this interesting freak does merit a write up and would go nice with the above Comet variety large cent. Unfortunately it is against the law to photograph U. S. Currency without consent from the Chief of the U. S. Secret Service Treasury Department, or we would be only too happy to illustrate this note. ..... — —

Note: This note has always been scarce, even back in the days when collectors were few. Has been underpriced even when it listed at $3.00. Now even at $15.00 list price, which is still underpriced, the supply is very limited. The Cataloguer will pay for crisp Unc., well centered notes, full catalogue.

1535. F.1384. $1.00. 1928. Small size. The only small size Legal Tender note issued. Red rays seal. Woods-Woodin. Crisp Unc. 6.00

Note: This note back in 1943 was listed at $2.50 in the catalogue. It was not available at double catalogue and rarely did we buy one for less than $6.00, from a very few collectors who had a few. Several years ago a small hoard was placed on the market which of course placed this in the common bracket, but it definitely is destined to become a scarce item in the future, not only because they are not too plentiful, but also a definite type note.

SILVER CERTIFICATES

Note: It is the Cataloguer's advice to the novice collector of this type of material, especially the 1880, 86, 91 Silver Certificates, that most of them do not exist in Choice conditions even in the largest collections. The supply is far too little and have always been underpriced. Wish to call your attention to this, as these notes are very seldom offered and you should take advantage of these notes whenever the opportunity arises.

FEDERAL RESERVE NOTES

Note: This is one of the most popular of all the currency series, especially the $1.00 and $2.00 notes. It is virtually impossible to complete this series in uncirculated condition, and again since the demand is greater than the supply, they are becoming scarcer every time offered. These notes have four signatures, the Registrar of Treasury, Treasurer of the United States, Cashier and Governor. All of the following are in the 1918 series. Reverse of the $1.00 notes have a large defiant eagle, holding the American flag. The $2.00 notes have a Battleship.

SMALL SIZE SILVER CERTIFICATES

Note: We wish to call your attention to the autographed notes. Nearly all are exceedingly rare, some are to our best knowledge, unique. These notes are from the famous Mr. Wm. Philpott collection.

1620. F.1401. $1.00. 1928-A. Portrait of Washington. Blue seal with gray "One" at right. Large "One" on reverse. Woods-Mellon. Crisp Unc. 5.00

1621. — $1.00. Similar but a Star Note. Star in front of serial number. (For replacement of a misprinted note). Crisp Unc. 7.50

1622. — $1.00. Similar. Low serial No. U00000019A. Crisp Unc. 12.50

1623. — $1.00. Similar. Low No. U00000021A. Crisp Unc. ..... — —

1624. — $1.00. Similar. Low No. U00000023A. Crisp Unc. ..... — —

1625. — $1.00. Similar. Low No. U00000024A. Crisp Unc. ..... — —

1626. — $1.00. Similar. Low No. W00000060A. Crisp Unc. ..... — —

1627. $1.00. Similar to above lots, but with autographed signatures of Woods-Mellon. The cataloguer is not sure, but to the best of his knowledge, this autograph with both signatures on the same note, could be unique. Crisp Unc. ..... — —

1628. F.1402. $1.00. 1928-B. Similar type but with signatures of Woods-Mills. Crisp Unc. 5.00

1629. — $1.00 Similar to above, but with the autographed signatures of Woods-Mills. This note we cannot call unique. After some research, we located another, autographed with both signatures, as this one, and as to the one listed in the famous Albert A. Grinnel Collection which identified itself as having Plate 11.(4), and rated as rare, we are assuming there could be others because this is Plate No. 3. Crisp Unc. — —

1630. F.1403. $1.00, 1928-C. Similar to above, with signatures of Woods-Woodin and with both autographs of Woods and Woodin. Crisp Unc. Not only is this a very scarce note, as these two, were in office together only two months and 27 days, but also to have it autographed by both men, the cataloguer is willing to "stick his neck out" without much fear, and listing this as UNIQUE. No valuation is being placed here, but since the catalogue is underpriced for just the series alone, we venture to say that is will show a great deal of interest and should bring a very high price for this very outstanding rarity ..... — —

1631. F.1404. $1.00. 1928-D. Similar to above, but with the signatures of Julian-Woodin. Again we proudly list this scarce note with the autographed signatures of both, Julian and Woodin, and again we believe this note to be unique. We have seen this note autographed by Woodin, alone, but not with both of these signatures together. Crisp Unc. We also wish to repeat, the ordinary 1928-D series is very scarce and underpriced. With the autographed signatures it must be very rare. These two men were only in office together for 7 months ..... — —

1632. F.1405. $1.00. 1928-E. Similar to above but with the signatures of Julian-Morganthau. Crisp Unc. There is no need to dwell on the scarcity of this note, as the catalogue indicates its rarity, by pricing it at $100.00. But without too much doubt, it will, in this nice condition exceed catalogue value and bring at least 125.00

1633. F.1405. $1.00. 1928-E. Again, another outstanding rarity. Similar to above, but with autographed signatures of both men on this rare note. We have never seen or heard of both autographed signatures on the same note. In the Grinnell collection, there were two separate lots. No. 5709 had the autographed signature of W. A. Julian alone and No. 5710 had the autographed signature of Henry Morganthau, Jr. alone. The cataloguer of the Grinnell collection made quite an issue of calling the buyer's attention to the fact, that buying both lots, the buyer would have both of the autographed signatures. When bidding on this lot, it is advised to consider not only the fact that it is a very scarce note, but should you pass this one, it may be a long time before it will show up again — —

1634. F.1406. $1.00. 1934. This is a new type note. The reverse remains the same as above series, but has a large blue numeral "1" at left and the blue seal is moved over to the right, superimposed over a gray "One". Julian-Morganthau. Becoming scarce. Crisp Unc. 7.50

1635. Similar to above, but with the rather low serial No. 00000608A. Crisp Unc. .... ——

1636. Similar to above, but with Star in front of serial number. Crisp Unc. ..... ——

1637. $1.00. 1934. Similar, but with the autographed signatures of Julian-Morganthau. This again we have never seen or heard of, with the autographed signatures. Crisp Unc. Mustbe rare ..... ——

1638. F.1407. $1.00. 1935. Now a complete change has taken place. The reverse ONE has been greatly reduced. On the obverse, the numeral "1" is small and gray color. At right, the gray ONE removed and a tiny blue seal replaces the former larger ONE. Scarcer than catalogue indicates. Crisp Unc. 7.50

1639. F.1408. $1.00 1935 (A). Similar to above. Crisp Unc. 3.00

1640. F.1409. $1.00. 1935 (B). Similar. Julian-Vinson. (only in office together 12 months. Crisp Unc. 5.00

1647. F.1415. $5.00. 1934A. Similar. Crisp Unc. 15.00

1779. Set of Mercury Dimes in two Black Plastic Holders. Gem Unc. 1916 to 1945 S. Including the 1942 over 41 which is Gem Unc. Please read this notice before placing your bids. There is no reserve bid on this lot or any other lot in our sale, or will there ever be unless stated. This set of dimes was purchased outright by us, along with several other sets from the Flying Eagle cents to the Liberty Standing Quarters. Each and every coin in all the sets were gems or virtually so. (If not in gem condition then the coin was virtually impossible to obtain.) We might add, that knowing the collector for years, we purchased the sets without examination, being fully aware of the goal he had set in collecting, "only the finest obtainable." This set would take years to collect individually. All sharp well struck coins. Naturally in this condition one would have to pay over catalogue to obtain. Especially the 1916D, 19D, 19S, 21, 21D, 24S, 27D, 27S and many others which are becoming sleepers. It is advised not to waste our time as well as your own in executing unreasonable bids. The catalogue value on this set is approximately $1035.00, and we feel a complete set in this choice condition would be a bargain at $1500.00 . . . . . — —

1780. Set of Buffalo Nickels. Complete from 1913 to 1938D. No overdate, but the 1913 P Ty. 1 and 2, 1914, 15, 16, 36, 37 are proofs. Each and every coin is a choice specimen, with the exception of the 1925-S (We have repeatedly offered in our past two sales $100.00 for this date which only catalogues $65.00. And now will go to $125.00 for a sharp specimen of this date.) This set, again we repeat, would take years of replacement to obtain in this superb state. We defy anyone to just show us a set that would equal this one. We would even be willing to pay $100.00 for the privilege of seeing it. This set catalogues over $1350.00. In comparison to average coins that time after time repeatedly sell over catalogue, this set should exceed the $1650.00 mark, without too much trouble, and at today's prices, it may be next year's bargain at $2,000.00. . . . . — —
